

INDIA FESTIVAL

17th September – 8th October 2016

India is more than just a country: it's a subcontinent with an incredible diversity of languages, ethnicities, religions and landscapes – and Indian cuisine is equally as complex and diverse. The focus is on a refined use of spices such as coriander, cardamom, ginger, nutmeg and turmeric. The interplay of spices gives every dish its own distinctive flavour.

During the India Festival, the crew from the exclusive Taj Palace Hotel in New Dehli cooks for the guests of Park Weggis. You will experience authentic cuisine, world-class service and Indian hospitality.
